

CODE OF ETHICS

CLAHEC requires directors, officers, and employees to observe high standards of business and personal ethics in the conduct of their duties and responsibilities. As employees and representatives of the Organization, we must practice honesty and integrity in fulfilling our responsibilities and comply with all applicable laws and regulations.

All full-time and part-time employees of Central Louisiana Area Health Education Center will be required to complete one-hour of training annually on the topic of Ethics in the Workplace. Certificates of completion of the training is required and recorded in employee's personnel file.